

PHP Practical Test

1. Create one database for product management.
Product & category will be the tables and more if required.
 - Use migration
 - Create seeder for few data like categories
2. Create one form to add data of product under any category.
3. Prepare listing of the product and change status of the product from the list without refresh the page.
4. Pagination & search is required in the listing of the products.

Note : Please prepare practical in any framework which you know.